

Many of our smaller cities like mountain towns have lost most of our local radio stations. The broadcast of K-LOVE regionally here in Colorado is a great inspiration to those of us who listen by translator in the remote areas of the state. Please defend our remaining source of great radio in our rural areas.